

Learn and Earn with a Career in Clean Energy

People with all kinds of skills and interests are starting clean energy careers in New York State.

Energize your career

nyseda.ny.gov/career-pathways

Scan this QR code and leverage NYSEERDA's full range of programs and resources for job seekers and students. Discover directories, maps of employers, information on degrees and certifications, and more!

Whether you are entering the workforce for the first time, choosing a college degree, or planning a career change, NYSEERDA has resources for you. Start taking advantage of them today and find a great job that's also good for the planet!

Discover Careers in Six Energy Sectors

Demand in these sectors is expected to grow over the next few years.

Solar

- A variety of opportunities in installation, engineering, and sales.

Clean Heating and Cooling

- Free training opportunities and no degree required to work as a heat pump installer or geothermal driller.

Wind

- Land-based or offshore opportunities, with free and paid training, good pay, benefits, and job security.

Electric Vehicles and Charging

- Specialization as an EV auto mechanic requires no degree, with free or paid training opportunities.

Weatherization

- Building maintenance, insulation and air sealing, and energy efficiency sales reps opportunities help building and home owners save money and energy.

Energy Assessment

- Technicians, energy analysts, and program assistants help New Yorkers use less energy, save money, and live safer, healthier lives.

NYSEERDA