

Dear Members of CAC—

As a resident of Long Island, we see the need almost daily of getting behind the plan to move our state to using clean energy. The results of even small efforts to do so are immediately manifested in concrete ways.

There are always those who resist any change, but we must consider our future generations.

yours truly,
James and Diana Davis