COMMENT: As the daughter of a recently retired Local 638 Steamfitter, I heard stories of a giant blowup rat being brought to different demonstrations, which my dad would be called on to be a part of. The show of force can be intimidating. Unions are the back bone of this country and we need more of them, but I ask that the parameters of the scope plan not succumb to intimidation tactics, Pro-fossil fuel interests should not be dictating any climate policy... especially New York's! Instead, please make parameters that ensure transitional workforce training, labor agreements, + prevailing wage. Some good examples of this are ① the NJ offshore wind developer Orsted's deal (signed May 5th) to use all union labor for its project along the East Coast and ② Ulster County Executive Pat Ryan's labor deal for prevailing wage + union guarantee. Thanks!
