

Climate Justice Fellowship Plus

Priority Populations

An individual must be a verified member of at least one of the criteria listed below to participate in the Climate Justice Fellowship Plus Program:

- Displaced homemakers
- Low-income individuals
- Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians. "Indian" is a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.
- Individuals with disabilities (includes individuals who are in receipt of Social Security Disability Insurance)
- Older individuals (55 years or older)
- Previously incarcerated individuals
- Individuals experiencing homelessness
- Individuals who have aged out of the foster care system
- Individuals who are English language learners or individuals who have low levels of literacy
- Individuals facing substantial cultural barriers
- Eligible migrant and seasonal farmworkers
- Individuals within two years of exhausting lifetime Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) eligibility
- Single parents (including single pregnant persons)
- Long-term unemployed individuals
- 16- to 24-year-olds who are enrolled in or have completed a comprehensive work preparedness training program. The training program must include a combination of rigorous clean energy education with hands-on technical training.
- Incumbent or unemployed fossil fuel workers

NYSERDA, with support from U.S. Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, of New York's 14th congressional district, is pleased to announce The Climate Justice Fellowship Plus Program is now available and is fully funded by the U.S. Department of Labor. The Climate Justice Fellowship Plus Program is a $3 million pilot program to advance climate justice in the Bronx and Queens.

Learn more.

For additional information on Climate Justice Fellowship Plus (PON 5566) Priority Populations, visit nyserra.ny.gov/cjf-plus

